MINUTES

The Sixty-Third Session (since the consolidation with the Fire Baptized Church in 1911) and Sixth Promotional Conference of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc. met in Falcon, N. C. June 23, 1973 with Bishop J. Floyd Williams presiding. The conference opened at 9:00 a.m. by singing I Am Thine, O Lord. Prayer was led by Clayton Guthrie. Superintendent Lee presented Bishop Williams, who conducted the devotion.

By motion the bar was set to include the rostrum and the seats all the way across the front, back to the center aisle.

Visiting ministers were granted a seat and voice in the conference. Present were: Montgomery and Mrs. Duncan, Mendel Moore, Dr. Joe Campbell, Jesse Simmons.

Hours for business were set as follows: 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. with communion at 11:00 a.m.; 2:00 p.m. until business is finished.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Chairman and Conference Members:

I greet you in the wonderful name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

It gives me great joy to report again to this Conference body. I am happy that my experience with the Lord is up to date. Today, I am saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost, enjoying good health and looking for the soon coming of Jesus Christ our Lord.

May I express appreciation to this Conference body and those whom you represent, for the wonderful cooperation with the Conference and General program. Because of you, I can report the greatest year in the history of the North Carolina Conference. Your support of the Conference, General Program, Harvest Train, Missions, and the entire church program has reached an all time high. Such enthusiasm, consistent giving and spiritual harmony only come when God is in our midst. Because of His presence, there has been a Conference-wide spirit of revival in our churches. Therefore, I can report souls saved, sanctified, filled with the Baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire, and many added to the church.

This has been a very busy year for me. I have traveled throughout the Conference for various reasons. I have preached for homecomings, revivals, dedicated churches, educational buildings, performed weddings, funerals, and many other things that fall under my responsibilities. I managed the Falcon and Piney Grove Camp Meetings, presided over all District Conferences, Conference Board meetings, Christian Education and Evangelism Board meetings, served as editor of the Evangel, chairman of the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund, Superannuation and Insurance Program. My office hours have been filled with today's complex duties, such as, correspondence, telephone calls, office calls, meetings with ministers, delegates, delegations, church boards, business men, lawyers, doctors, and whatever came my way. In each case, I have endeavored to first, be a good representative of Jesus Christ, then of my conference, my fellow and sister ministers, the local church and my denomination. I have had many hard decisions to make; at times I had to be stern and exact, yet show love and understanding. In each case, I have endeavored to conscientiously and in the fear of God be fair to everyone.

As a member of the General Board of Administration I served for the first eight months on the World Missions Board as Recording Secretary. I served as Chairman of the Emmanuel College Board and King Memorial Lectures. At General Conference in Roanoke, Virginia, in August, I was elected to serve on the General Executive Board where I received the portfolio of the General Loan Fund. On the Executive Board, I have represented this conference, this area, and my denomination to the best of my ability. I feel that the seven Conference Superintendents serving with Bishop Williams and other elected officials, is one of the best moves our denomination has made. For in each board meeting attention is called to the "Grass Roots" of this great church, that is the pastor and local church. It has been a great experience and challenge to me, for there I can serve my conference and General Church!

In all my years of service in this great conference and church, I never felt so great a challenge or a greater love for God, my fellow minister and Christian friends as I do today. I believe and feel the great move of God in our church is for a purpose. That is to awaken the great sleeping giant of holiness and pentecost and set us afire to spread the good tidings of Jesus and His soon coming. The fire is falling. Let us get our torch and help it spread. My greatest desire is to be used of God. I have no other plan in life, but to be found at the post of duty when He comes or calls. By His help, I plan to be found diligently laboring in His kingdom, wherever His will is for my life.

THE STATE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The state of the North Carolina Conference for the year 1973 is very good. This is our first report since we changed from the fiscal year to the calendar year. Therefore, we will have to begin with January 1, 1973.

In this report you will see the greatest increase we have ever shown. This was made possible through the leadership of first, the Holy Spirit, our ministers, local church and the continued effort of keeping the program before the people.

For the first time that I can remember, the North Carolina Conference has lived up to its name. We are often referred to as the largest conference, and we are. We have often been referred to as the largest, but not doing our part toward the General Program financially. Well! I am happy to report for the year 1973, the largest conference gave more to the General Program than any other conference. For this I am very thankful. First, because it is our responsibility; secondly, when we give, God pours out His blessings upon us. The following report will give progress of each department.

Christian Education

The Christian Education Department will again show a continued growth. Reverend Wiley T. Clark, director, and our Christian Education Board have worked untiringly to make this report possible. We have seen through the years that the Sunday School and Lifeliners Departments continue to be the greatest source of growth for our church.

It takes much prayer, planning, and time for this program. For there are youth camps, Teen Talent, rallies, candy sales, work shops, membership drives, and conventions to plan for and direct. Each year we feel that this is the best yet. But God, through His divine leadership, continues to bless.

Several years ago the National Census was, that the Sunday Schools are gradually fading out and would soon be no more. But not so with the Sunday Schools of the Pentecostal Holiness Church and the North Carolina Conference. Thank God for Brother Clark and our Christian Education Board for keeping the need and value of both Sunday School and Lifeliners before this Conference.

Evangelism Department

There is so much that could be said about the Evangelism Department, its director, Reverend L. B. Collins, and Board. However, time and space will not permit. Reverend L. B. Collins will give a more detailed report, but may I mention some highlights.

This year through this department seven churches have received assistance, and in each we have seen God working. Fuquay-Varina for many years had been at a standstill. But today it is on the move. The old church has been sold, and four and a half acres of choice land purchased on Highway 401 just out of Fuquay. A new church program is underway. The church, Sunday School, Lifeliners, Woman's Auxiliary membership and attendance have increased to an all time high. Reverend Collins is the pastor of this church and I know he will not want to say so much about it himself, but will report on others.

The Evangelism Department is paying off. Small churches placed under this program do not remain small long. We need now about seven full time experienced ministers this year to place under the program. Pray about it. And if God leads, we can use you. May I express appreciation to everyone who gave of his time, means, and prayers for the support of the Evangelism Department.

Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Hollon Davenport and her board, have proven again the saying, "If you want a thing done, let the women become involved." Through their efforts the cafeteria now is simply beautiful. They first bought new drapes, then new carpet, and this year, new tables and chairs. This was made through the participation of each local Woman's Auxiliary doing its part. For such we say, "Thank you and God bless you."

This is only a small part of their labors in our conference. They also have rallies, workshops, retreats, conventions and special Conference-wide Woman's Auxiliary Day. In each church you can see the touch of the Woman's Auxiliary. Other than making the church more worshipful, these fine ladies promote the annual Harvest Train, visit the sick, shut-ins, carry trays, conduct prayer meetings and help win the lost to Christ. I have often wondered how the church got along before the organization of the W. A. I do not want to look back to see or try to remember. I look with great pride on what they are doing now, and can visualize a greater work in God's kingdom for them tomorrow.

Other Areas of Progress

This report would not be complete without saying something about the overall increase in various areas of the church. First, may I express appreciation to each for your faithful service in each department and assignment, for it takes everyone working together to make such a good report possible.

The annual Harvest Train reached an all time high this year. This conference alone gave $42,318.73 cash and $21,868.20 in commodities, a total of $64,186.93. This shows real concern and love for our children. The World Missions Program has shown its greatest increase this year. Reverend Raymond Potter was appointed as conference director two years ago. One pastor from each district was appointed to serve with him and the conference superintendent to coordinate a program with the General Missions Department. Through conventions and mission rallies this year, you have made an increase of over $30,000.00 to World Missions. This shows your love for our missionaries and for those who have never heard the Gospel. My appreciation is extended to Brother Potter and his committee on a job well done.

Gratitude to God

We know that progress is in each department because those involved "had a mind to work," for God only works through men. But the increase and blessings always come from God. To Him we give the praise.

REPORT OF APPRECIATION COMMITTEE

The Psalmist said "The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree . . . grow like a cedar . . . and still bring forth fruit in old age." (Psalm 92.)

The impression sometimes is given that to be superannuated is to become totally impotent, but many instances could be cited to prove this to be contrary to the facts.

However, isn't it wonderful, when one comes to the afternoon pause in life he can have provided for him at least in part, the assistance whereby he can have the pressures relieved so he can travel at a slower pace?

Such is the case in the two whose lives deserve all the appreciation one can express today.

Mrs. Florence Eugenia McCartney gave herself to the Lord at the early age of 19. Soon thereafter she felt the call to dedicate herself to the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ. Her consecration led her to render service in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kentucky. She preached in open air, brush shelters and in school houses. In 1942 she was granted mission workers license, and in 1947, she and her husband transferred to the North Carolina Conference, where she assisted her husband in all his pastorates.

She was elected as Woman's Auxiliary President and served the conference well for three and one half years. She also wrote the Woman's Auxiliary Constitution.

Her husband was elected superintendent of Falcon Children's Home, and she was ever by his side manifesting her patience and wisdom in all the activities of the home. Many other useful services have been rendered by this great woman. In her changing role we wish for her many more useful years in the service of the Lord.

* * * * *

Our appreciation goes to Brother Ola L. Porter, having received his call to the ministry and finding in this church the doctrine that corresponded with the experience he had, he became a member in 1954. Since that time he has served his conference as evangelist, pastor and church builder. His work, both as a minister and a worker may be seen in the physical structures and spiritual improvements through the service he has rendered throughout the eighteen years of active ministry.

As he continues his ministry at a more relaxed pace, may God's Blessings rest upon him.

In moving the adoption of this report may I request that both these fine ministers be given opportunity to speak briefly to the conference by way of word of testimony.

Signed: W. Eddie Morris, Chairman; Blanche Pollard, Roy O. Williams.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

God, in His providence has seen fit to call two of our North Carolina Conference ministers from the scene of earthly labor to that heavenly abode, during this conference year. While we will miss these our brethren here, we realize we must bow to the higher wisdom and perfect will of God who has taken them from our midst to be forever with Him; and it behooves us to stay in readiness to join them there at some future time.

The Reverend H. D. Marshburn became a member of the North Carolina Conference in the year of 1935 and was one of our most capable ministers and pastors, having pastored several of our largest churches. He served for eight years on the Conference Board and part of that time as assistant superintendent of the North Carolina Conference. He was known for his sweet, humble Christian spirit, and his love for his God, family, church and conference. May God bless the memory of Brother Marshburn and give us many more with the spirit which he possessed.

Reverend J. B. Lee became a member of the North Carolina Conference in the year of 1950. He served faithfully and well in a number of pastorates. He was dependable and loyal to the end. He was serving the Beaufort Pentecostal Holiness Church at the time of his home-going. His faithfulness and deep consecration were characteristic of his life and ministry. He too, left us an example of faith, love and loyalty to God, his church and his family.

Signed: Rev. W. E. Thompson, Chairman; Rev. W. M. Wooten, Rev. H. C. Potter.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL PROMOTIONAL CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CONVENTION

June 19, 1973

The Christian Education Convention was opened by Rev. Wiley T. Clark. Rev. John Hedgepeth led the Convention in singing. Prayer was led by Rev. T. E. Long, Jr., pastor of the New Born First Church.

Brother Clark welcomed the convention delegates and visitors.

Rev. J. Doner Lee gave the devotional from Ephesians 4:7. His message was a challenge for each person to serve God faithfully in that calling wherewith they were called of God.

Brother Clark defined the members of the convention as conference officials, Conference Department officials, ordained and licensed ministers, Christian Education Director, local Sunday School officials, local Sunday School teachers and elected delegates.

The bar was established as the first section of seats all the way across the front.

Motion was made by Rev. John Hedgepeth that the printed program be adopted with any modifications necessary.

Visiting ministers were recognized by Brother Clark. Those in attendance were: Rev. Ed Walker, Rev. Bob Thompson, and Rev. Jesse D. Simmons.

Brother Clark introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Dick Seaton, Director of Sunday School promotions at Marietta Baptist Tabernacle in Marietta, Georgia.

Rev. Dick Seaton spoke on the "How and Why of Sunday School Promotions." He used as a basis for his remarks Acts 2:1-4.

Rev. Lalleon Narron, Rev. James D. Leggett, and Rev. N. D. Lucas reported as members of the Sunday School Board. Their reports were accepted and a standing vote of appreciation for their labors was given.

Rev. Dick Seaton spoke on "Understanding Bus Evangelism."

Brother Clark asked Brother Clayton Guthrie to lead the Convention in a dedicatory prayer and Brother Hildred Potter was asked to close that prayer.

Rev. John Hedgepeth, Rev. Linwood Conner, and Rev. Billy Wooten reported as members of the Lifeliners Board. A motion was made to accept the report of each official and to give them a rising vote of appreciation.

Rev. Dick Seaton spoke to the Convention about "Youth."

A rising vote of appreciation and a round of applause was given to Rev. Dick Seaton for his excellent messages to the Convention.

Rev. Wiley Clark gave the Memoirs Report and a moment of silent meditation followed by prayer led by Rev. James Leggett.

Motion was made to adjourn.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

It is with a sense of deep sympathy that we, your Committee on Memoirs, submit the following:

Our hearts are grieved by the departure of many lovely and wonderful saints from the ranks of the North Carolina Conference Sunday Schools over this past year; yet, we are consoled by the Word of God in that it reassures us. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints," and again, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

We wish to extend our heart-felt consolations to the families, friends, and Sunday Schools who feel so keenly the passing of the beloved and pray that God shall bless their memory to our heart as they being deceased "yet speak."

Rocky Mount: Mr. John J. Harrell, Mr. Charlie G. Braxton.
Merritts Chapel: Mr. R. C. White.
Oriental: Mrs. Hannah Sawyer.
Williamston First: Mrs. Reba Roebuck, Mr. Joe Nicholson.
Kenly: Edgar Bell.

Black Creek: Lee Watson.

In loving memory of these whom the Lord hath called home, we recommend that this convention stand for a moment of silent tribute and prayer.

Respectfully submitted: Christian Education Board.

LIFELINERS MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

With a deep sense of sympathy, we, your Committee on Memoirs, submit the following report:

The Lord in His wisdom has seen fit to call some of our friends and relatives to the eternal world during this past year. We have the assurance that those who have died in Christ will awaken to eternal joy and peace in the presence of the Lord. Although some have departed, we have the promise that one day we may see them face to face.

Smithfield: Mrs. Lucy Barbee.
Chadbourn: Mrs. Rosa Fipps.
Calvary VD: Rev. J. B. Lee, Mrs. Eva Paul.
Oriental: Mrs. Hannah Sawyer.

In loving memory of these departed loved ones whom God hath called, we recommend that this convention stand for a moment of silent prayer.

Respectfully submitted: Christian Education Board.
